Notice

It is hereby notified that the College will remain closed on 29th July, 2026 to commemorate the Death Anniversary of Pandit Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar, the illustrious founder whose vision continues to inspire generations.

All regular academic and administrative activities of the College shall remain suspended on that day. However, University of Calcutta Examinations and all examination-related duties will be conducted as per the notified schedule.

Members of the teaching and non-teaching staff, students, and alumni who wish to pay their respects and reverence to the great educationist by offering floral tributes and garlanding his statue are most welcome to do so.

Great personalities never truly depart from us. They continue to live through their ideals, their selfless service, and the enduring imprint they leave on humanity. Pandit Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar's unwavering commitment to education, women's empowerment, social reform, and human values remains a guiding light for us all. We are indeed privileged and honoured to carry forward his name, his ideals, and his glorious legacy.
