Notice

Suspension of Classes on 26th September 2026

This is to inform all students that, in observance of the 206th Birth Anniversary of Pandit Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar, all classes of the College shall remain suspended on 26th September 2026.

The day holds a very special and emotional significance for the entire Vidyasagar family. Pandit Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar, whose ideals of knowledge, sacrifice, service, compassion, social reform and women's empowerment continue to guide our institution, remains an enduring source of inspiration for us all.

Students are requested to note that the suspension of classes is specifically for the observance of this significant day. The elaborate celebration programme has been postponed to 30th September 2026 in view of the directions of the Higher Education Department regarding participation in the programme to be graced by the Hon'ble Chief Minister.

All students are requested to extend their cooperation and observe the occasion with due respect and reverence.
