Notice

Mandatory Participation and Registration for the Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) Examination

All students of Vidyasagar College for Women are hereby informed that participation in the Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) Examination on 21st November 2026 (10:00 AM to 12:00 PM) is mandatory for all students. Accordingly, every student is directed to complete the online registration process by 30th October 2026 without fail.

The examination provides an important opportunity to develop awareness and understanding of India's rich intellectual, scientific, philosophical and cultural heritage and its relevance in the contemporary world.

Benefits of Participating in the IKS Examination:

- 1. National-Level Recognition: Students will have the opportunity to receive national-level rankings and Certificates of Participation from the organising bodies, including the IKS Cell and Vidya Bharati.
- 2. Cash Prizes and Merit Recognition: Meritorious students will have the opportunity to win cash prizes and receive recognition for their academic achievements.
- 3. Career and CV Enhancement: Participation certificates will add value to students' academic profiles and CVs, demonstrating their intellectual curiosity, initiative and engagement in a national-level examination.
- 4. Preparation for Competitive Examinations: Knowledge of Indian Knowledge Systems may prove particularly useful in various national-level competitive examinations, especially where questions relating to Indian heritage, philosophy, science, culture and traditional knowledge are included.
- 5. Academic and Intellectual Enrichment: Students will gain valuable exposure to India's contributions to mathematics, medicine, science, philosophy, literature, governance, technology and other disciplines.
- 6. Broader Career Opportunities: Familiarity with Indian Knowledge Systems can strengthen students' general knowledge, analytical abilities and interdisciplinary understanding, which may benefit their future academic and professional pursuits.

Registration Details:
