TITLE:- ‘NOT ME, BUT YOU’-SERVING COMMUNITY THROUGH ‘GYAN, TYAG, SEVA’

OBJECTIVES:-

“Only a life lived for others is a life worthwhile.”

-Albert Einstein

The adage by the great mind, Einstein, evinces the kindred qualities of inclusivity, compassion, empathy and selflessness that the young volunteers of Vidyasagar College for Women try to exemplify through their community outreach programmes at nearby slums (the slums at Shibnarayan Das Lane and Jadunath Sen Lane have been adopted by the N.S.S. unit of the College), at pavements around the College Campus, at far-flung and under-developed Ushuldungri regions of Purulia and, even at Baikunthapur (on the fringes of Sundarbans), home to tiger-widows and orphaned kids.

CONTEXT:-The N.S.S. unit of this College strives to reach out to the poor, the downtrodden and the underprivileged and bring about a positive change in their lives, to the best of our abilities. The NSS also believes in empowering through education as darkness of ignorance could only be annihilated through manifestation of that perfection already in man.

PRACTICE:-

- Donating blankets, dresses, study kits, books, dry food.
- Free eye-check-up camp followed by free-of-cost surgery for cataract removal of three patients.
- Story-telling sessions for slum-dwelling kids.
- Drawing competition for slum-kids and, distributing tokens of appreciation among them.
- Campus cleaning and cleaning of lanes adjacent to our College.
- Planting of saplings and watering of plants.

EVIDENCE OF SUCCESS:-

- Whole-hearted appreciation received from the wider community.
- Overwhelming enthusiasm of slum-kids to join NSS event/s organized by our College.
- Spontaneous interaction with the wider community.
- Senior members of these slums spontaneously stating their needs.
- Short visits to College library.

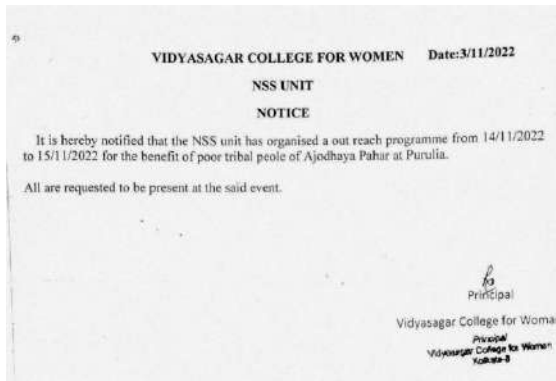

PROBLEMS ENCOUNTERED:-

Serving the community is a labourious endeavour that requires longer, dedicated working hours; this poses a practical problem as squeezing out ample time for community service from chock-a-block College schedules, becomes almost impossible.

A Noble Initiative of Saving Vision Saving Life

Sankara Jyoti Eye Institute feels immensely happy to announce that it has been a great experience to work in association with the N.S.S. Unit, Vidyasagar College for Women. A free eye check-up camp has been organized by Sankara Jyoti Eye Institute in association with the N.S.S. Unit, Vidyasagar College for Women on the 27th of March, 2023. At the eye check-up camp, a total of 35 people were screened. The camp has been attended by the N.S. 5 volunteers and the needy slum dwellers of the area- 39, Sankar Ghosh Lane. All of them have received free eye checkups, and also severe cases of cataracts were detected.

The patients had undergone cataract surgery free of cost at Sankara Jyoti Eye Institute, New Town. They have received the appropriate treatment at the Newtown Hospital. They are currently leading a well-versed life. We earnestly thank the NSS Committee of Vidyasagar College for Women for giving us the opportunity to serve the poor and needy and, look forward to more such fruitful associations in the future.
