VIDYASAGAR COLLEGE FOR WOMEN - ANTI-RAGGING CELL (COLLEGE AND HOSTEL)

Importance of the Anti-Ragging Cell for Students

Every student deserves to feel safe and welcome in their college environment. The Anti-Ragging Cell at Vidyasagar College for Women plays a crucial role in ensuring a harassment-free experience for all students, especially freshers. It fosters a culture of respect and inclusivity, allowing students to focus on their academic pursuits without fear of intimidation. The Anti-Ragging Cell of the college functions in strict accordance with the existing UGC norms.

The College has a well-established Anti-Ragging Cell headed by Dr. Sutapa Ray, the Principal. Dr. Chaitali Banerjee, Assistant Professor in Zoology, is the Convenor of the Cell.

Awareness and Prevention Measures

At the beginning of each academic year, both incoming and existing students are thoroughly informed about the anti-ragging regulations. The Cell actively collaborates with all departments and the Students' Union to maintain close vigilance on student interactions. Any instance of misconduct is to be reported immediately for swift and appropriate action.

A Culture of Mutual Respect

Vidyasagar College for Women takes pride in its heritage and the exceptional environment fostered by both staff and students. This positive and respectful culture is a significant reason why the College has not had a single reported incident of ragging to date.

Compliance with UGC Regulations

The College is firmly committed to curbing the menace of ragging in line with UGC regulations.

Mechanisms of Redressal

Should a student unfortunately experience ragging, they are encouraged to promptly contact the Anti-Ragging Cell Convenor, Dr. Chaitali Banerjee. A written complaint outlining the details of the incident and identifying the perpetrators (if possible) must be submitted to facilitate an appropriate response.

Detailed Investigation and Action

- Upon receiving the complaint, the Convenor will consult with the Principal/Teacher in Charge to convene a Fact Finding Committee as per UGC guidelines. This Committee will thoroughly investigate the matter by interviewing the victim, alleged perpetrators, and visiting the incident site (if necessary).

- The Committee will then submit a detailed report with findings and recommendations for action to the Head of the Institution within a set timeframe.

Penalties for Ragging

Students found guilty of ragging by the Anti-Ragging Cell will face one or more of the following penalties:

- * Suspension from attending classes and academic privileges.
- * Suspension or revocation of scholarships, fellowships, and other benefits.
- * Exclusion from participation in exams or evaluations.
- * Withholding of results.
- * Prohibition from participating in collaborative endeavors, national/international conferences, or presenting research work.
- * Dismissal or removal from the hostel.
- * Cancellation of admission.
- * Expulsion from the institution, potentially barring admission to other institutions for a specific period.
- * Collective punishment if the perpetrators cannot be identified.
- * Filing a First Information Report (FIR) with local police authorities in severe cases.

The Anti-Ragging Cell reserves the right to determine penalties based on the specific details and severity of each ragging incident.
