

Departmental Seminar 2022

Department of philosophy

6.5.2022

This year the Dept of Philosophy has organized a seminar which has been scheduled in two different parts. In the first part some students presented their papers in front of the audience. A student of 6th semester Shreya Samanta presented her paper on The influence of Samkhya on Srimad Bhagvat Gita. Arundhuti Choudhury of semester IV presented her paper on Human Rights. Another Student from Semester IV , Bobby Halder, presented her paper titled The Common Sense Philosophy and Vidyasagar.

In the next part of the seminar our invited guest speaker Dr. Pritha Ghosh, Associate Professor, in the dept of Philosophy of Rabindra Bharati University delivered her Lecture on Tagore's concept of beauty. Dr Ghosh has been awarded her Phd degree from the Jadavpur University. She has done her thesis on Negation Imagination and truth : A Philosophical Investigation. She has extent of knowledge on Existentialism, Psychology and Aesthetics. She has delivered her thoughts in a very lucid way. 23 students participated in this virtual seminar on google meet platform.

The Department also celebrates Teacher's Day, Freshers' Welcome (for 1st Sem) and Farewell (for 6th Sem) by performing cultural program.